I have always loved going to the library.
Ever since I was really little the library has been one of my favorite places to go. The librarians have always been extremely friendly and have been very helpful. I have always been able to find something to read/~~watch~~/ or do and the library has been a great source for many school projects. One thing I think the library could do to better target my age group is to have "classes." I enjoyed the photography class you had awhile back. ~~the~~ Maybe a music clinic day. ~~or something like that~~ ~~about~~ Many teens are interested in music now.

Let us know what you think? On 6-25-14 my Cousin + I came into the library to use the computers as we was by the front desk I witnessed ~~a~~ [redacted] checking in books or something of that nature another lady name S [redacted] was sitting down behind the desk T [redacted] told her she needed to use the computer for some work S [redacted] started yelling at T [redacted] about having to stand on her feet and work. I believe this was uncalled for + very unprofessional. Tammy she should have never yelled

My daughter was attempting to use the computer in the Children's Area, when two boys refused to follow the directive of the librarian to exit the computers. The librarian politely explained to the boys that they had used the computers most of the day and their turn was up. The boys refused to exit, prompting me to instruct them to do so and to show the librarian respect. ANGRY BEHAVIOR! Marni Scotranski

3 young boys were running and being very loud and disruptive on July 7th. I observed them being disrespectful to the library staff as well even after being asked to leave.

Let us know what you think? My son and I walked into the Union City Branch the other day and the clerk looked at us with disgust. She made us feel unwelcome. She was rude while checking our books in. I don't come in there often and only stay long enough to get books. If she is treating us like that then who else.
