

ADULT PROGRAMMING REPORT JULY 2016

Display Case: This month's display case featured beautifully carved wood figures and plaques from the personal collection of wood carver Milton Smith.

Photography Contest: Contestants were invited to bring in a book-themed photo to enter our first-ever photo contest. First, Second and Third place winners were chosen to win cash prizes.

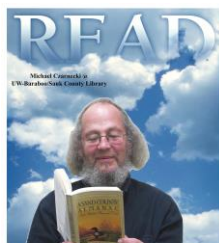

How to Set and Achieve Life Changing Goals:

Professional Life Coach Justin Gentry offered a mini-seminar on learning how to get results in achieving definite goals.

What is Geocaching?: Families, couples or individuals learned the basics of the treasure hunting game geocaching, including how to sign up and how to find a geocache in your area.

Palm of the Hand Memoir Writing Workshop: Poet, publisher and oral memoirist, Michael Czarnecki, lead participants in the "Palm-of-the-Hand" memoir writing method.

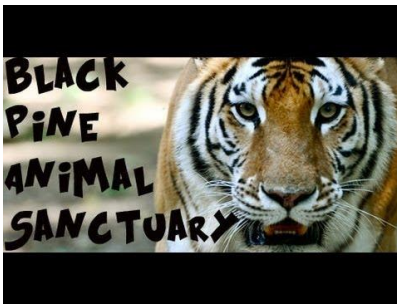

Poetry Reading: Michael Czarnecki visited once again to read some of his poems and to lead an open poetry reading for the public.

Discussion of the History of the Potawatomi Indians: Cultural Historic Preservation Office Manager of the N.H.B.P.I. Beth Moody, hosted a question and answer presentation on the history of the Potawatomi Indians.

Future Keepers of Fire

Black Pine Animal Sanctuary: Lori Gagen, Executive Director of the Black Pine Animal Sanctuary, spoke on the animal residents of the sanctuary, the pet trade, pet ownership and the entertainment industry.