Thank you so very much for allowing us to fax at no cost. When you are surviving on limited funds this truly helps. Sometimes you need to fax documents, almost everyone charges. Again Thank you from a ~~lady~~ lady just trying to ~~over~~ get by.

This place needs to have an "adults only" area of computers, so we don't have to listen to those ARAB kids talk every day.

Circulation Desk and all my husband and I very much enjoyed Matthew Ball aka Boogie Woogie kid on Saturday. Wish we had spread the word so others could have been there... The guest was charming and talented! Thanks to all of you for offering so many extra curricular choices at the library. The Staff is over the top w/ regards to ordering books when needed and always courteous and helpful!

We came here in '78 and the building itself drew me in then. Sincerely, Carol & Bill Tyson
P.S. Many, many thanks to each & everyone who help keep us reading as well

Tween's fall events kick off at library

For The Daily Reporter

COLDWATER — On Sept. 16, a group of 17 tweens (10-12year olds) enjoyed making magnetic slime under the supervision of Angela Richards. While the process was rather sticky and messy, the result was an awesome ball of magnetic slime which attracted and "swallowed" anything metallic in it's path.

For October, the Tweens will be "Getting Your Glow On!" with a choice of designing and making a glow in the dark tin can or a jar lantern. The seasonal fun will take place from 10:30-11:30 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 21 at Kids' Place on the fourth floor of the Coldwater branch of the Branch District Library. The program is designed specifically for Tweens.

For more information contact the Kids' Place staff at (517) 278-2341 ext 103 or 104.

Coldwater's Branch District Library welcomes YouTube sensation Oct. 7

For The Daily Reporter

COLDWATER — Matthew Ball aka The Motor City Boogie Woogie Kid is the attorney turned musician who now has over 3.9 million YouTube views and counting! Michigan's reigning Boogie n' Blues heavyweight, Ball left the practice of law in 2001 to pursue a life in Music.

With recent appearances on Fox 2 News Detroit's 'The Nine Show' and Channel 20 News Detroit's 'Concert on the Qube', and back from a year-end Pacific coast tour, Matthew is called a "nationally emerging boogie-woogie master." His performances are described as "Awesome!" "Crushing!" "Fantastic!"

Suffice to say you won't want to miss this special toe-tappin', family-friendly program of acrobatic piano favorites like In the Mood, Ain't Misbehavin, Glory of Love, Basin Street Blues, The Entertainer, Bumble Boogie and many more!
