Had a small glitch with my online library service, called the front desk and they helped me out right away! They were so helpful and pleasant! It is refreshing to get help like that these days! Thank you!

New Branch District Library Bookmobile comes off the assembly line

By Jim Measel
Dec 18, 2023 | 7:32 AM

BRANCH COUNTY, MI (WTVB) – The Branch District Library says its brand new Bookmobile is fresh off the assembly line.

After being built at Morgan Olsen in Sturgis, the Bookmobile is in Greensboro, North Carolina with Matthews Specialty Vehicles, Incorporated.

According to a post on the library’s Facebook page, the empty space will be prepared for the mobile library both inside and out.

QUINCY, MI (WTVB) – The Quincy Chamber of Commerce sold Christmas trees to local businesses and community members during the holiday season to help raise funds for the Quincy Library which will be used for their Storywalk in the Quincy Park.

The trees were on display during the holiday season at the Quincy Park. The winners of the decorating contest included the Schultz Family for their tree commemorating their long time family business, The Shopper’s Guide.

Other winners were Longstreet Living and the Quincy Historical Society/Museum.

The Quincy Chamber of Commerce would like to thank all of the businesses and community members who decorated trees and donated their winnings to the Quincy Library Storywalk.
