Origin of a Brand Name:

Frank Carney, a 19-year-old engineering student at the University of Wichita, opened a pizza parlor in 1958 with his older brother Dan. It was in a rented, hut shaped building with a sign that had room for only eight letters and a single space. Thus the name Pizza Hut.

For you Lone Ranger Fans: Kemo Sabe means "Soggy Shrub" in Navajo.

Opps!
Chicago - Two would-be robbers could not have picked a worse place than Z's Sports Tap for their holdup attempt. Much to their chagrin, there was a retirement party going on...for a police officer. There were more than 100 cops in the bar. They quickly subdued the robbers and called on-duty police. "That's what makes this job interesting," said a police spokesman. "Dumb people."

Did you know?

Rat Racing. "Members of Grand Dynamo, a fancy private club in Moscow, have a new way of escaping the daily rat race," The New York Times reported in 1995. "Gamblers, with Scotch tumblers and scorecards in hand, place their bets ($10 minimum) on large trained rats that scurry through a neon-lit, glass-encased racecourse, prompted by a hand bell rung by a dwarf dressed as an 18th-century page. 'We've always had a lot of rats in Russia,' smirked the manager of the club, 'but this is the first time they've been organized.'"

Announcements/Program

Announcements:

District Golf Scramble will be held June 19th at Blackberry Golf Club; $60.00 per person. Sponsored by Quincy Rotary Club.

Program

Pat Albright discussed his work with the Michigan Farm Bureau and his recent visit to Mexico on farm related issues.

Uncle John's Stall of Fame...

In 1993, Barry Lyn Stoller, a Seattle drywall installer, took some Ex-Lax to cure his constipation. When it didn't work, he wrote to the company demanding a refund. They mailed him a check...with his zip code accidentally entered as the dollar amount. Stoller deposited the $98,002 in the bank, withdrew it a few days later and wasn't seen again for several years - when he was arrested and jailed for fraud.

Did You Know...

The French have a doughnut they call pet de nonne - "Nun's Fart." According to legend, a nun living in the abbey of Marmoutier was preparing food for a religious feast. Suddenly she farted, and the other nuns laughed at her. She was so embarrassed that she dropped the spoonful of dough she was holding in to a pot of boiling oil - accidentally making a doughnut.
