OBJECTS OF ROTARY

To encourage and foster:

(1) The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

(2) High ethical standard in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying by each Rotarian of his occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

(3) The application of the ideal of service by every Rotarian to his personal, business and community life;

(4) The advancement of international understanding, good will and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional men united in the ideal of service.

Information for Rotary Members

- 1. Individuals are not members of Rotary International. The Club is a member of Rotary International.
- 2. Rotary International has through its Constitution and By-Laws made certain provisions that concern individual members of its clubs.
  - (a)—Termination of individual membership.

NON-PAYMENT OF DUES

Any member failing to pay his dues within thirty days after the prescribed time shall be notified in writing by the secretary at his last known address, and if said dues are not paid on or before ten days from date of such notification said membership shall automatically terminate.

Such former member, at the discretion of the Board, may be reinstated to membership upon his petition, and upon the payment of all indebtedness to the club, provided his former classification has not been filled meanwhile by the election of a new member.

NON-ATTENDANCE

The membership of any active or past service member who is absent from four consecutive meetings of this club shall automatically terminate, unless such absence is made up, or he is excused by the Board of Directors.

Membership whose percentage of attendance is less than sixty per cent during the first or second six months' period of the club's fiscal year shall automatically terminate, unless he is excused by the Board of Directors for good and sufficient reasons.

Absence at a regular meeting may be made up by the attendance at any other Rotary Club on any of the six days immediately preceding the day of absence, on the day of absence itself, or on any of the six days immediately following the day of absence provided notice of such attendance is given to this club.

When planning out of town trips please consult your Secretary for clubs where you may make up your attendance.
