COLDWATER IN HISTORY

JUST WHO were the earliest inhabitants of this locality no one assumes to say, although there appears to be evidence that the Mound Builders, perhaps descendants of the Aztecs, preceded the "noble red man." Be that as it may, it seems certain that the fierce and warlike Pottowattomie Indians were, as early as 1721, undisputed lords of the St. Joseph Valley, which included Branch County and Coldwater Prairie.

Previous to that, Fr. Marquette, the zealous French priest, had discovered the mouth of the St. Joseph River, in 1673; and in 1679 LaSalle built a fort there—only 75 miles from Coldwater, as the crow flies.

Until 1763 France held nominal rule over all the region from Quebec to New Orleans; but in that year, when a treaty of peace terminated a war between that country and England, the latter was given Canada and Michigan. It was in this year that the Pottowattomies massacred the garrison at St. Joseph.

At the close of the Revolutionary war England yielded Michigan to the United States; but in 1787 it became part of the Northwest Territory, which extended from the Ohio River to the St. Lawrence and from the Mississippi to Pennsylvania.

In 1796 the British surrendered Detroit and other posts to the United States, and Gov. St. Clair proclaimed the County of Wayne, which extended from the Cuyahoga River in Ohio to the Mississippi and northwest to Lake Superior, including of course the present County of Branch (then called the Township of Green) and the entire St. Joseph Valley. In 1800 this locality became a part of Indiana, but in 1805 the Territory of Michigan was formed, with Gen. Wm. Hull as governor.

In 1812 England again came into control of Michigan and secured the help of the Pottowattomies, who massacred the garrison at Fort Dearborn (now Chicago) and killed every American possible, helped by Tecumseh and his Shawnee braves, but at the close of the war the British of course abdicated.

Our predecessors here, the Pottowattomies, lost heart after the death of Tecumseh in 1813, concluding that it was a hopeless task to attempt to stem the tide of the coming whites, and never again gave serious trouble, though their presence here retarded settlement and caused pioneers to hasten on to localities less populous with Indians.

A very old geography, published in 1814, in possession of the publisher of this Directory, gives the white population of the entire state of Michigan as 4,762 at that time, 113 years ago; it is now about four millions.

It was in 1821 that Chief Topinabee and his people sold to the whites what is now Branch County and a vast area besides, though they still continued to occupy it as before, on reservations; one of which was six miles square, called Mikkasawbee, in Coldwater and Quincy Townships. However, they roamed everywhere, to hunt and fish as they chose, in a veritable red man's paradise; the woods abounded in deer, wild turkeys, pigeons, squirrels and other game, while the lakes and streams swarmed with fish. The deed conveying this land to the government was signed by Topinabee, followed by Wawenickemack, Mayoncheemon, Atchwenuckquee, and many others.

The present city of Coldwater occupies part of what was then a beautiful prairie, some three miles long from east to west and a mile or so wide. It was dotted with oaks, with an occasional elm, while bordering it were magnificent forests of beech, maple, walnut, whitewood, elm, oak and other trees, interspersed with many streams and some sixty or more lakes, large and small, in what is now Branch County.

The following abstract of the noteworthy events of the past 103 years will be found valuable as a matter of reference:

1822—Joseph Godfrey established a trading post to barter with the Coldwater Prairie Indians. A little later one Marantette conducted another where Oak Grove Cemetery is now located.

1825—The government ordered a 100-foot highway made from Detroit to Chicago, but it proved far too expensive and was abandoned in favor of the old Indian trail through Coldwater (the present Chicago road), which explains the tortuous windings of that thoroughfare today, even though it has been considerably straightened during the 101 years that have passed.

1829—Branch County was laid out and so named by the Territorial Legislature; it was first attached to Lenawee County and later to St. Joseph. During this year A. F. Bolton bought a tract of land where Masonville was afterward located, east of the present cemetery bridge.

1830—Hugh Campbell erected the first (log) house on the present site of the Masonic Temple. The county had 50 whites at this time. Stages began running between Detroit and Chicago, supplanting the horseback mail service. Entire county tax, $7.36.

1831—Allen Tibbits and Joseph Hanchett platted a village here, calling it Lyons; according to present streets it ran from Jefferson to Monroe and from Church to Washington. In July Mr. Tibbits preached the first sermon here. A. F. Bolton erected the first frame building in the county, a hotel at Masonville; landlord, Harvey Warner. Branch was made the county seat in place of Masonville, which held that honor a few weeks; Branch then had one log house. Coldwater postoffice was at Masonville.

1832—Chicago road built. Oriental Hotel erected by John Morse. Peter Martin built a sawmill at the junction of Division and Clay Streets. Cynthia Gloyd taught the first school, with nine pupils. Silas A. Holbrook established the first store. M. E. Church founded by Rev. E. H. Filcher, circuit rider, with five members; Allen Tibbits and wife, Joseph Hanchett and wife, and Amelia Harrison.

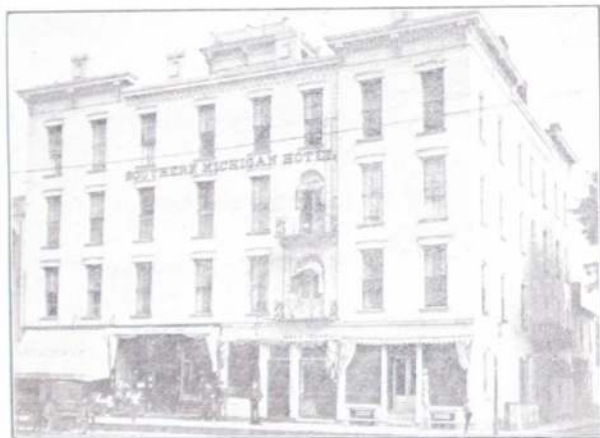

1833—The name of the town was changed to Coldwater, from the Indian "chuck-sey-ya-bish" or cold water. Branch County, as such, began its separate existence, March 1; it had previously been attached to St. Joseph County. First sheriff, Wm. McCarty; clerk, Wales Adams; treasurer and register of deeds, Seth Dunham; probate judge, Peter Martin.

1834—The "old red schoolhouse" was erected at the corner of Pearl and Hudson Streets.

1835—The village of Masonville was platted on the east bank of the Coldwater River and aspired to be the county seat again. Here Roland Root and Wabskokee Marsh bartered with the Indians. Coldwater Baptist Church organized with sixteen members.

1836—Methodists built a church.

1837—The village was incorporated, the first "town meeting" being held on the 7th of April of that year; the population of the entire township was 900. Branch County had 4,016 people, about as many as the entire state 23 years earlier. Francis Smith, Thos. Daugherty and Wm. B. Sprague erected a mill on the present site of the "A" mill; it was burned in 1858 and rebuilt in 1859. Dr. I. P. Alger at this time found 33 taverns between Quincy and Sturgis, indicating the tremendous westward emigration through here at that time. A terrible year for malarial troubles; one historian declares that 32 out of 140 people of the little village died that fall. The cause was said to be the Clay Street milldam, built in 1832. A body of angry citizens destroyed it.

THE OLD SOUTHERN MICHIGAN HOTEL.

Built in 1855, it was then called Michigan's finest hotel, and for more than half a century it was one of the popular hostelryes of the State. It was remodeled, a few years ago, and has since been known as the Southern Michigan Office Building.

July 18, Coldwater's first newspaper, the Observer, was issued. It became the News, then the Democrat, whose existence ended when as the outcome of a row among the owners the office was "pied." Presbyterian Church organized with sixteen members. Log court-house and jail (39 feet square) built at Branch, the county seat. Michigan was admitted to the Union as a state.

1838—Extremely hard times, caused by "wildcat" inflation. Bounty on wolves, $5 each.

1839—Schoolhouse erected at the corner of Pearl and Clay Streets. A county poor-farm was purchased at Branch; present county farm purchased April 1, 1861. Kakotomo murdered Sanaaquett, the Pottowattomie chief.

1840—The last of the Pottowattomie Indians, except a few stragglers, were removed to the far west.

1841—Albert Chandler founded the Coldwater Sentinel. Total county vote, 1,015.

1842—March 1, Coldwater became the permanent county seat, supplanting the village of Branch and blasting Masonville's hopes. July 4, Grand double celebration, Sunday-school and "old way."

1844—Prof. Sweet organized Coldwater's first band. The Baptists built a church where the Old Bank building now stands; it is the present Gage building, 30-32 South Monroe Street. The Presbyterians also erected a house of worship, where the Farmers' Mutual building is now located; it was sold in 1898 to the Lutherans and moved to its present location on South Jefferson Street. Benjamin H. Parker of Batavia was killed by John White, who mistook him for a deer, those animals, with wolves, bears, etc., being still plentiful.

1845—One Robinson was robbed of $1,500 in gold and silver in a Coldwater tavern.

1846—The first jail (in Coldwater) was erected. Spring election voted against liquor selling. Nov. 30, American Hotel burned. Henry Lambert, a machinist, fell heir to $670,000.

1847—The county voted to build a brick court-house; majority, 27, the same figure by which the proposition to build the present one was carried, 40 years later. In this year (1847) a Masonic lodge was established and the Coldwater Guards were organized with S. T. F. Bullard captain; also the Branch County Agricultural Society, with L. D. Crippen president, Wm. B. Sprague vice-president, F. V. Smith secretary, and Geo. A. Coe treasurer. The "old white schoolhouse" was erected on the present site of the Washington school, also a steam flouring-mill on the corner of Jefferson and Pearl Streets.

1848—First brick court-house erected, also a $500 poorhouse. St. Mark's Episcopal Church founded.

1849—July 4, Large quantity of cloth stolen from E. Butterworth's fulling mill, near the river. Nov. 6, Telegraph line reached here. St. Charles' Catholic Church founded.

1850—June 10, County treasurer's office robbed of $1,400. Dec. 10, First railroad train reached here. Wesleyan Church established with six members.

1851—County's horse fame began with A. C. Fisk's purchase of Green Mountain Black Hawk for $1,500; later he sold Mambrino Chief for $12,000. March 1, Six stores, the Eagle Hotel and several other buildings burned; loss $15,000. Nov. 17, School commenced in the brick (or Third Ward) schoolhouse with L. R. Austin principal. Nov. 22, Eight stores and one dwelling burned; loss, $12,000. These two fires consumed half the business section. The town had 370 houses.

1852—Feb. 27, Lewis Rolland hung himself in jail. Oct. 7-8, First county fair held. Wesleyan Church erected.

1853—Dr. J. B. Gully opened a "water cure" sanitarium at the corner of West Chicago and Mill Streets.

1854—March 21, Another disastrous fire caused the Village Board to prohibit the erection of frame buildings from Clay Street to the parks. Oak Grove Cemetery was established.

1855—Southern Michigan Hotel built—"finest in Michigan."

1856—Aug. 26, First fire company organized, with Clinton B. Fisk as foreman. "Excelsior" hand engine put into use.

1857—Corner-stone of the old Episcopal Church laid; completed in 1862; rebuilt and enlarged in 1896.

1859—June 7, The Catholic Church was blown up with gunpowder.

1860—Present Catholic Church erected (remodeled later). Sept. 8, Capt. "Jack" Wilson, aged 38, went down in Lake Michigan with his ship, the Lady Elgin, and 300 passengers; his body was recovered and now lies in Oak Grove Cemetery.

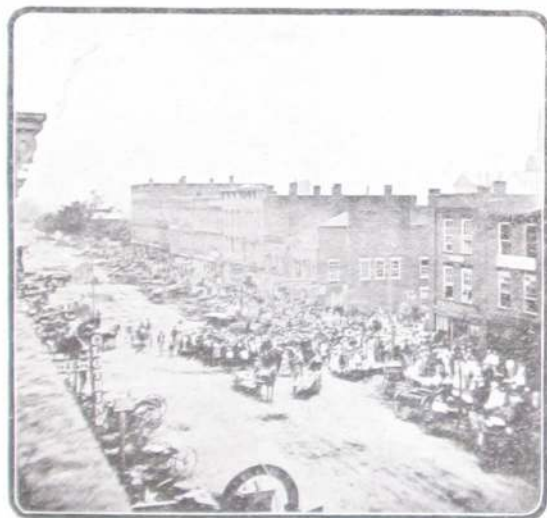

1861—Feb. 28, Coldwater became an incorporated city. Fort Sumter was fired upon April 11, and on the 29th Capt. Ebenezer Butterworth and 145 of his Zouave Cadets left for war; the Coldwater Light Artillery (afterward called Loomis' Battery) left April 30 with six brass cannon and 120 men, only 49 of whom returned three years later. May 1, Many Coldwater men enlisted in the First Michigan Infantry. Capt. Ebenezer Butterworth was wounded,

July 21, at Bull Run and died in a Rebel hospital Aug. 17. St. Paul's Lutheran Church organized. Old Central schoolhouse erected.

Concealed in the shank of every Radio Arch Shoe is a Built-in Bridge which provides a Firm Treading Base for every portion of the foot, from heel to ball. This bridge retains the arch in its normal position and relieves strained ligaments of their extra load.

HOLLAND FURNACES Make Warm Friends

Don't overlook this vital fact: When you buy a Holland Warm Air Circulating System, you make The World's Largest Installers of Furnaces directly responsible to you. This responsibility covers your heating plant completely installed.

The Holland Guarantee Bond is backed by Financial Strength, Moral Character, — and Long Years of Engineering Experience

How much is it worth to YOU to know that your home is properly heated and ventilated? A good deal, surely, and yet instead of spending more money, you spend less—a lot less. It will pay you well to investigate.

HOLLAND FURNACE COMPANY.

SOME OF THE NAMES IN THIS DIRECTORY

Coldwater and vicinity have no superior for attractiveness. If you doubt it, rise bright and Earley some Mundy of a Sommer morning as the sky begins to Redden with June glory. If a good Walker—not necessarily a high Stepper—go on Foote for a little hike to the West on "Shank's horses." Perhaps you prefer to Ride. If so, get out your Trotter from his Stahl and you're off at a Gallop if you are a good Ryder. Orr, take your trusty Carr as far as the Rhodes allow (have your Dimmers in order), then Legg it like a Champion over Hill and Vall, thro Mead and Marsh, o'er Dewey Lee, up slightly Knowles and along the Fairbanks of purling streams, past fertile Fields and thro leafy Bowers to a charming Lake with its gleaming Sands and graceful Reeds.

Suppose you do Ford now and then a Brook in the absence of Bridges, it won't hurt you to Wade a bit; but when Scramblin out, look for the best Camp on the Brink of the lovely Waters. Let the Weatherwax warn if it will, you have a glorious Haven in the Woods beside the Ripley, limpud Pond.

If properly equipped with Lines and Bates, and you are a good Fisher, you will soon be Pullen in the Phinney tribe, for are there not here plenty of Herring and Mackrel? So much for Fish, while your boat drifts on an even Keel and the graceful Seils disport unmolested.

On this shore should be your Castle. Don't Waite nor Dally, for here are plenty of Wood and Stone and Glass and Steele, a Carpenter to plan, a Sawyer to work, and Hammer and Brace and Bitz to work with, to build the Wahl, even to the Garrett, tidy Holmes with Hall complete and Barnes for all. If Morehouse is needed, add a Bricker two.

But what is home without a Fair one in charge? If you are a Wise Young Swain, even though just a little Mooney, if you really Love your Honeywell enough, tell her so! The first fine Knight, when every Starr is out (you know nature Hathaway of helping these affairs) just Doll up in your "best bib and Tucker" and be Loveless no more. Your Darling may not be a Spooner, but you'll not be Holden hands very Long before her dear Lipps will tell you that her Hart is yours forever to Keep.

Should she be a good Cook, 'tis well. Don't Crowder, but as she has promised to be your Valentine, stick Close to her: never let go your Holt on the Little lady so Smiley and so Sweet. If Aiken for a Crum, of course you will provide the Kohl to Fry the dinner; and hubby Stokes the fire, you know. Trust her to visit the Butcher and the Baker, and you may show your skill as a Carver. With nice, warm Waffles, tempting pork and Biens, delicious Rice and a Berry or two (maybe a Lott of them) you can Drinkwater, a full Pitcher of it, from the best Wells in America; no Beers in this house and never a worry at any time about "what's Butterworth?"

Only remember your failing—don't enjoy the Treat too much; don't Stowe away and keep on Eaton till you are in Payne; don't be Dull enough to Gamble both on your capacity and on your ability to yell for a doctor to put his Hatton quick and come to your relief.

Of course your garden will have its lovely Flower—its lordly Rose, its sweet Lilly and its modest Fern, with every charming Bloom imaginable, carefully attended to by the Gardner until the Frost lays them low. Without doubt you'll Vogt this the loveliest spot of all.

And your pleasant Grove with its Ash, its Beech, its Birch and Chestnut, a veritable Parke, to gladden the Sowle of any Forester who loves every Busch and every tree from Root to Branch, from Leaf to Nutt.

You hear the Carroll of feathered songsters on the Wing as they Dart here and there, with the Robbins, the Hawks, the Swan, the Crane and the Crow—yes, even the dainty Renn, with the Brandt, the Teal and the Martin.

Not only are the birds here, but if fond of the Chase and a devotee of the Hunt, you may call your faithful Warpup or your trusty Kerr and trail the Wolf, the Bair, the Fox and the Buck; you may even have courage enough to Kill the haughty Lyon, for the sake of his tawny Hyde.

Your neighbors? None better anywhere. Plenty of Good people, even some Angels: Bishops and Elders, some of Merritt and Mohr of Morrills. The Church folks are strictly all Wright and even the Worst ones and those of Vice are Goodnow, for they Pray in season, they search the Scriptures, they Haight no more, and the Parsons all rejoice, each happy in his own special Parrish.

As a matter of course the tradesmen include among their number not only the Butcher and Baker aforesaid, but also the Millers and the Miners, the Masons and Coopers, the Bankers and Barbers, the Weavers and Drapers, the Schumakers and Goldsmiths, the Porters and Butlers, as well as that honest toiler who is always Weldin things just beside his Bellows.

And equally of course each would be glad to accumulate a Barrel of money, but the question is, How to do it? One enterprising Counterman registers his Gaines on every Price. Another saves his Nicholis and his Penneys. One Feller who longs for more Pfunds just simply Buys to the limit, so naturally he's always having his Upson Downes; unfortunately, money Burns in his pockets. But the business man must look out for the Main chance as well as a square Deal; not to be a Skinner, but if his Byers fail to pay he certainly must Dunham—both the Sloman and the man from whom you may think it Hard to collect. To be Caldwell off is fine, but to pay without a Rowe is better. So now Letts all Post our books and Peek away at the delinquents, lest they Locke their cash where the Kopp or even the Sheriff could not get it on Adair.

And the "Powers that be?" Ah, here we have the aristocracy! Dukes and Lords and Earls and Kings, while the Kizer himself hobnobs with the Peers of the realm.

Very few Black people here, but some White. Some appear Green and some always Blue, while the modest Gray people make up in quality what the Brown ones count in numbers.

Some look Sorter Grimm to their Hardy neighbors and perhaps Schock some of their Jolley friends, while the Merriman and the Blind man joyously cut Loose with the music of the Horn and Drumm and the Fidler. But the Strong one, the Mann who is Wiser, cares not a Rapp who May carelessly Heri his Sharp remarks in his direction, even though they be black as Tarr and Swift as any toranado Gust. With the patience of many Jobes he lets the Sparks fly, sets his Kloek placidly, takes a Knapp, packs his Collers and Schartz for a Tripp to see his French friends in England, and still insists that Coldwater is the finest little city on the face of the earth.

The shortest name in the Directory is Re, though Ott is a very good second for brevity.

Eight families with eight children each are listed, and in one of them a ninth has appeared since the names were printed.

Probably the most remarkable combination of names in Coldwater's history was when, years ago, John Buggie married Kittie Cutter.

The most refreshing combination was when June Shade lived on Green street in Cold Water.
